"Partnering with Markt® is one way realMLS is making sure we remain essential, increase our value to our members and secure our place in the real estate ecosystem of the future. Our members get enhanced services and our staff are able to learn from Markt® as well," stated Nicole Jensen, CEO realMLS.

Markt® started in 2017 when Chris Carrillo (CEO, Metro MLS®) and Matt Consalvo (CEO, ARMLS®) noticed their respective MLSs shared the same MLS DNA (<https://ourmlsdna.com>). Both groups use the same MLS platform, own their tax systems, have the same customer service philosophies and a shared vision of the MLS future. Now, Markt® welcomes a new partner, realMLS, who shares that same MLS DNA.

Simply put by Mr. Carrillo, "realMLS shares the same values, commitment to service and vision of the MLS of the future. We are better together than apart."

Additional Markt® partners are set to be announced soon.
